

Dr. Pravin Jadhav

CEO of Vivpro Corp

---

Dr. Pravin Jadhav is CEO of Vivpro Corp, a provider of R&D Intelligence Assistant (RIA). In the last 20+ years of professional experience, Dr. Jadhav has helped several key leadership positions at US Food and Drug Administration (US-FDA), Merck and Otsuka. Most recently, Dr. Jadhav was Global Development Team Leader within Global Clinical Development at Otsuka Pharmaceutical Development and Commercialization (OPDC). Dr. Jadhav drove an integrated clinical development and commercialization strategy for a key asset. He has led a multi-disciplinary team of data, information, and knowledge experts to create science-driven, technology-enabled solutions of clinical and economic utility. At US-FDA, he was Team Leader and Expert Regulatory Scientist in the Division of Pharmacometrics of the Office of Clinical Pharmacology (OCP). He has worked on more than 100 New Drug Applications and 150 Investigational New Drug applications. Dr. Jadhav received PhD in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the Medical College of Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) and MPH from Johns Hopkins University, Bloomberg School of Public Health. Scientific/ Technical: Pharmacometrics, Clinical Development, Drug Discovery, Statistics, Public Health, Regulatory science and policy, Knowledge management, Data strategy, Data insights, Smart data and analytics, Big data, Real world evidence and translation, Health Information Technology, Market access, Cost effectiveness, Comparative effectiveness. Leadership: Innovative problem solving, Think outside the box, Strategy planning, Matrix leadership, Effective communication, Results oriented approach, Productivity and operational improvement, Talent management.