

Mike Gordon

Chief Executive Officer, ArisGlobal
Chairman of the Board

Mike Gordon is the CEO of ArisGlobal, a global life sciences technology provider with innovative and market leading solutions. He also serves as Chairman of its Board since 2020. Mike is a seasoned professional with a well-established background in global leadership roles, mainly within technology-focused organizations. Prior to taking Arisglobal's CEO role in 2022 he was CEO of Altus Group, a public company in the Commercial Real Estate sector, where he led its transformation into a cloud-based software, data, and analytics company through a renewed focus on sales, reworking solutions, and improving customer retention and satisfaction. Preceding Altus Group, Mike served on the leadership team at Callcredit Information Group as CEO, where he oversaw a successful transformation of the business and an eventual sale to Transunion. Before Callcredit Information, Mike served as FICO's Executive Vice President of Sales, Services, and Marketing, after working in various roles of increasing responsibility across the company's banking, insurance, retail, health care and pharmaceutical markets. Before joining FICO in 2005, he spent more than 13 years in the financial services industry. As a vice president at Capgemini (formerly Ernst & Young Consulting LLP) his competency was in providing strategic and operational solutions to banking and insurance providers, leading the Insurance Center of Excellence and Solutions. Mike also currently serves on the board of directors of three technology companies, Fintech, Hometrack, and Constructonline. He received a BS in Industrial Engineering / Operations Research from Northwestern University and an MBA in Finance and Business Economics from The University of Chicago Graduate School of Business.
